

4. HOME ALTERATIONS:

To save time, any Homeowner planning an addition or major alteration to their home including the erection or replacement of fences, should review their plans with the Board in order to comply with local ordinances and the possible requirement of a code variance. The West Bloomfield Township Building Department may require you to get our approval.